

WORKSHOP
JULY 8-9, 2022

UNIVERSITY OF WÜRZBURG

A large, faint, grayscale image of several orchid flowers is centered in the background of the poster. The flowers are detailed, showing the texture of the petals and the structure of the center.

MEMORY AND PERSONHOOD

ORGANIZERS: MARTIN KLEIN AND FABIAN HUTMACHER

ATTENDANCE IS LIMITED. FOR REGISTRATION AND FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE VISIT:

GO.UNIWUE.DE/4XBV4

PROGRAM

FRIDAY, JULY 8

09:00 - 09:15 WELCOME

ANCIENT & MEDIEVAL PHILOSOPHY

09:15 - 10:15 JÖRN MÜLLER (Würzburg)

Memory in Augustine: spiritual activity and path to the true self

10:30 - 11:30 VÉRONIQUE DECAIX (Paris)

Are we doomed to forget? The case of memory of the damned in Peter John Oliy

11:45 - 12:45 MARTIN KLEIN (Würzburg)

Personal memory and state-consciousness: medieval interrelationships

EARLY MODERN & CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY & PSYCHOLOGY

14:15 - 15:15 VILI LÄHTEENMÄKI (Oulu)

Memory and self-constitution: cartesian and lockean perspectives

15:30 - 16:30 FABIAN HUTMACHER (Würzburg)

The extended self: autobiographical memory in the digital age

17:00 - 18:00 SVEN BERNECKER (Köln)

The paradox of self-forgiveness

SATURDAY, JULY 9

PHENOMENOLOGY & PSYCHOLOGY

09:30 - 10:30 MICHELA SUMMA (Würzburg)

Enacting pain memories: opening and foreclosing possibilities

10:45 - 11:45 ERIK NORMAN DZWIZA-OHLSEN (Köln)

Embodied personhood in dementia diseases: a phenomenological perspective

12:00 - 13:00 TILMANN HABERMAS (Frankfurt)

The role of autobiographical reasoning and life story coherence for diachronic identity: the cases of biographical ruptures and dementia

Venue: Würzburg Residence

